Trace H.

A large, dashed uppercase letter 'H' is centered in the upper half of the page. To its left is a cartoon illustration of a brown hen with a red comb and wattle, standing on a blue shadow and holding a white egg in its beak.

Below the large 'H' are two rows of handwriting practice. Each row consists of a solid top line, a dashed middle line, and a solid bottom line. The first row contains five dashed uppercase 'H's for tracing. The second row contains five dashed uppercase 'H's for tracing.
